Arc flash switchgear in China in Vietnam

Overview

Are arc flash and arc-flash studies a safety concern?

Arc-flash and arc-flash studies are also clarified. This White Paper also highlights a safety concern when HV/MV switchgear fails catastrophically, particularly oil-filled switchgear assembly. Within IEC Standards, HV switchgear are used on systems above 1 kV up to 52 kV. In North America MV is any voltage between 600 V and 69 kV.

How to evaluate arc rated switchgear in Canada?

Canada use CSA C22.2 No. 0.22-11 “Evaluation methods for arc resistance rating of enclosed electrical equipment” to evaluate internal arc rated switchgear. Internal arc type testing is very important to reduce the risk of exploding switchgear.

Can LV switchgear be internal arc rated?

It is important for the Duty Holder to request internal arc rated switchgear at MV and LV. LV switchgear can be internal arc tested in accordance with IEC/TR 61641 “Enclosed low-voltage switchgear and controlgear assemblies – Guide for testing under conditions of arcing due to internal fault”.

Are arc-flash sensors safe?

Sensors available in the market today detect light from an arc-flash inside switchgear very quickly, typically less < 100 ms, and trip the incoming supplies to the switchgear. Some concern has been expressed whether the sensors fail safe. North American Arc resistant testing standards are defined by ANSI/IEEE C37.20.7.
