Overview

Should solar energy programs be initiated in the mining sector?

Solar energy programs in the mining sector should be initiated in order to improve the environmental awareness of all relevant stakeholders, so that they can grasp the advantages and disadvantages. Nevertheless, solar energy presents an excellent opportunity for mining companies in their energy management and business development.

Can solar diesel hybrids provide off-grid energy to mines?

In this sense, the use of solar diesel hybrids to supplying off-grid energy to mines via self-generation models faces several challenges. The technical requirements to develop solar energy in mining environments, particularly hybrid systems, are more complex than the common rooftop solar systems connected to the grid .

How can a solar energy system help the mining industry?

The system will help the mines reduce diesel consumption and power their operations with clean, reliable energy. Senegal is another great example. A 20 MW solar project, paired with 11 MWh of energy storage, will supply sustainable power to the national grid.

Should technology transfer be supported in the development of solar for mining?

Technology transfer should also be supported so that advanced technologies can be transferred from the energy industry. Technological development and R&D on solar energy behaviour and transformation will be a key element in the future development of solar for mining applications.
