Foreign trade procurement of energy storage batteries

Overview

Which international trade issues will remain a concern for energy storage projects?

Two major areas of international trade that will remain causes of concern for energy storage projects are the application of tariffs and supply chain integrity.

Can new tariffs be added to batteries from outside the United States?

New tariffs may be added to batteries procured from outside the United States, particularly from China, which is discussed in greater detail in Addressing Tariffs and Trade in Energy Storage Projects.

What are the different types of battery procurement agreements?

There are primarily three types of agreements relevant to battery procurements: (1) purchase agreements, (2) master supply agreements (MSAs), and (3) capacity reservation agreements (CRAs).

How does tariff risk affect a battery energy storage system (BESS) project?

Mitigating tariff risk in battery energy storage system (BESS) projects is crucial for ensuring project financial viability, as tariff changes can significantly affect cost structures and overall project economics.
