What is a 12 kV switchgear?

The switchgears offer total solutions for systems ranging from 3.6 kV to 40.5 kV, and user scenarios that require medium voltage power breaking, control and protection of systems. The 12 kV ET1 Alternating-current Metal-enclosed Switchgear is an indoor, metal-enclosed, air-insulated medium voltage switchgear.

What is a 11 kV switchgear system?

The 11 kV switchgear system must consist of the followings: Twenty (20) switchgear panels such as: Fourteen (14) outgoing switchgear panel. The degree of protection of persons against hazardous approach to live part must be IEC 60529.

What is a switchgear used for?

It is main used for power transmission of middle/small generators in power plants, power receiving, transmission for substations in power distribution and power system of factories, mines and enterprises, and starting of large high-voltage motor, etc, so as to control, protect and monitor the system. The switchgear meets IEC298, GB3906-91.

Why is the switchgear equipped with a special current transformer?

In order to meet the requirement for wall mounting and front-end maintenance, the switchgear is equipped with a special current transformer, so that the operator can maintain and inspect it in front of the cubicle. 1.
