Metal clad switchgear factory in Botswana

Overview

Who makes metal clad & metal enclosed switchgear?

Powercon Corporation, located in Severn, Maryland, manufactures quality Metal-Clad and Metal-Enclosed Switchgear as well as a variety of other products serving the needs of the electrical industry.

What is metal clad switchgear?

Metal-clad switchgear is typically considered top-of-the-line equipment, offering the most safety features, higher current interrupting, and more voltage options. All these options also mean that the equipment is usually larger in overall footprint. Meaning it costs significantly more than non-metal-clad switchgear or metal-enclosed switchgear.

Is secogear a metal clad breaker?

SecoGear is available in standard IEEE metal-clad construction. SecoGear is designed and fully tested to IEEE standards. It utilizes GE's latest SecoVac vacuum circuit breaker, third-party tested in accordance with IEEE C37.09. Manufactured in accordance with high quality standards, engineers have integrated core technologies.

What does a switchgear contain?

Each cubicle may contain the circuit breaker, bus bars, primary and secondary disconnecting devices, instrument transformers, instruments and relays, secondary wiring and more. The switchgear is designed so that additional circuit breakers or auxiliary cubicles may be added in the future.
